

AAC & Literacy Cohort

The BASSC AT/AAC Department is excited to offer a new training series for the 21-22 school year!

What:

A professional learning community that will cover a variety of strategies, techniques, and information that support the literacy growth for students with complex communication needs, specifically focused on emergent literacy.

Where:

Virtual!

When:

The 3rd wednesday of each month from 2:30-3:30 (starting in September). Materials and information will be sent out prior for you to watch and read on your own (1 hour) and then we will meet at the designated time to discuss & chat more in-depth (1 hour).

Who:

This is a perfect training opportunity for all educators that work with students with complex communication needs! SLPs, special education teachers, regular education teachers, other related service personnel, classroom assistants, & administrators.

Why

To be part of a cohort of educators throughout the year, to learn more about supporting the literacy learning of students with complex communication needs, and to earn CPDUs (2 CPDUs per month) for FREE!

Questions or to register:

email Maggie Judson at maggie.judson@bassc-sped.org or Jeanna Antrim at jeanna.antrim@bassc-sped.org